About Us

Building Confident Swimmers for Life

At Stanford Swim School, we're passionate about helping children feel safe, capable and confident in the water. With over 20 years of experience in swim education, we've supported thousands of Aussie families on their learn-to-swim journey.

Our program is built around structured progression, small class sizes and personalised attention. We focus not only on stroke technique, but also on essential water safety skills — because confidence starts with feeling secure.

Our qualified and caring instructors create a positive, encouraging environment where every child can learn at their own pace. Whether it's a baby's very first splash or refining advanced strokes, we're here to guide each swimmer every step of the way.

Who We Are

Dedicated to Safe and Strong Swimming

At Stanford Swim School, we're dedicated to helping children of all ages feel safe, capable, and confident in the water. With over 20 years of experience, we've guided thousands of Aussie kids through every stage of swimming, from their very first splash to advanced stroke development.

Our approach is built on structured, progressive programs, small class sizes, and a nurturing environment. We don't just teach swimming — we focus on water safety, self-confidence, and skills that last a lifetime. Every lesson is designed to be fun, encouraging, and tailored to each child's pace, so they can achieve real progress while enjoying the water.
